BIKE THE VINE TRAIL

Cycling the Napa Valley Vine Trail offers an immersive journey through wine country. The 47-mile paved path stretches from Vallejo to Calistoga, weaving past vineyards and several towns, such as Napa, Yountville, and St. Helena. The trail offers a safe, car-free route for cyclists of all levels, with amenities such as rest stops and art installations enhancing the experience along the way. Recent expansions, including the scenic Calistoga to St. Helena segment, make it an ideal way to explore Napa's landscape and culture on two wheels.

HIKE THE OAT MINE TRAIL

For an invigorating outdoor adventure, the Oat Hill Mine Trail is a popular hiking trail known for its challenging terrain and rewarding views. It's an 8-mile out-and-back trail that climbs to the top of Bald Hill, offering breathtaking views of Napa Valley. The trail is suitable for hikers, mountain bikers, and equestrians; however, prepare for a rough and rocky experience. It's worth the effort once one reaches its peak and takes in the sweeping vistas of Napa Valley, Mount St. Helena, and the surrounding mountain ranges.

TAKE A SELFIE DURING MUSTARD SEASON

Mustard season in Napa Valley, typically from late January to March, transforms the vineyards into a sea of yellow, perfect for unforgettable selfies. The golden fields beckon viewers to take photos with (or in) the mustard as a stunning backdrop. Whether snapping pics along the Silverado Trail or posing between vineyard rows, the scenery is Insta-magic. To find the best viewing spots, get the map from the Visit Napa Valley website.

VISIT NAPA'S OLDEST WINERY CHARLES KRUG

Established in 1861, Charles Krug is Napa Valley's oldest winery and a landmark in California winemaking. It introduced the state's first public tasting room in 1882 and has been owned by the Mondavi family since 1943. The estate blends historic charm with modern elegance, featuring the restored Redwood Cellar and Carriage House. Guests can enjoy acclaimed wines like Cabernet Sauvignon and Bordeaux-style blends while experiencing a setting steeped in heritage and Napa's pioneering wine legacy.

LEARN FALCONRY AT BOUCHAINE

Bouchaine Vineyards in Napa Valley offers a unique falconry experience that combines wine tasting with an up-close encounter with birds of prey. Led by master falconer Rebecca Rosen, guests learn how falcons and hawks help protect the vineyards from grape-eating birds. The experience includes live flight demonstrations, opportunities to interact with the birds, and insights into sustainable farming practices. Afterward, guests can enjoy a glass of Bouchaine wine in the garden, with the option to bring a picnic.

PARTICIPATE IN A HARVEST

Harvest season in Napa Valley (August–October) offers immersive experiences for wine lovers. Many wineries invite guests to join grape picking, stomping, and behind-the-scenes tours. Grgich Hills Estate hosts its iconic stomp, while Conn Creek and Raymond Vineyards offer blending sessions. Harvest parties often include live music, local food, and fresh wine straight from the barrel. Vineyard walks, educational tastings, and traditional "Blessing of the Grapes" ceremonies provide a memorable way to connect with the winemaking process.
